Dear Employer:

The challenges to achieving success that employers face in today's marketplace are multiple. Among those are employee health care cost management issues, identifying quality vendors and providing programs that serve the strategic needs of employers, employees and the community.

Harmony Expositions is a high quality wellness program vendor that delivers value to its' clients. Founded on the premise that cost effective investment in employee health is a sound business decision, Harmony Expositions has consistently demonstrated an ability to deliver quality services and programs for its' employer and community clients.

The Wellness Institute of Greater Buffalo and Western New York Inc. has worked with Harmony Expositions since its' founding, and is pleased to recommend Harmony Expositions as an outstanding provider of wellness services to employers in Western New York.

Sincerely,

Philip L. Haberstro
